A resolution of the degree of Master of Arts The degree of Master of Arts is conferred by Cambridge University on graduates of the University. It is of the same level as the degree of Bachelor of Arts and normally takes a similar length of time to earn, about five years for an undergraduate and about seven years for a graduate. Unlike an undergraduate degree, a Master's degree need not be a terminal degree. A Master of Arts may be awarded by the Faculties of the University, and the degree is conferred by the Senate or, for degrees prior to 1995, the Faculties of the University. It is the first time the talks of the EU-China trade deal in the next phase has been discussed during a UK visit by EU trade chief Cecilia Malmstrom. China is the biggest buyer of UK exports of goods and services and supports around 50,000 jobs. But the UK government said free trade talks with the EU must take account of the fact that China is placing restrictions on imports of UK goods, including poultry, pork, beef and dairy. EU ministers last week also called for tougher measures to be taken to ensure the rules of global trade could not be undermined by Beijing. Speaking during the visit in Beijing, China's vice minister of commerce, Zhang Chengwei, refuted the claims that China is the
